- All entries must be made by the owner/lessee of the horses or ponies. The owner/lessee entering the horse must be a financial member of ASEA Inc. with which the exhibit is registered and proof of such is to be supplied with entries.
- To enter an ASEA Inc show, the owner/ lessee must use the complete name and registration number of the horse or pony as it is shown on the registration certificate.
- Pending registration for other societies will NOT be accepted.
- All entrants must familiarize themselves with our show rules and code of conduct prior to attending.

CODE OF ETHICS, CONDUCT AND BULLYING

Violations of this code may result in serious consequences under the Constitution. All, including Spectators, competitors, and Committee Members, must adhere to conduct criteria below at ASEA events:

- a. Refrain from public disparagement.
- b. Respect all others.
- c. Avoid intimidating or degrading behaviour.
- d. Exhibit fairness, respect, and consideration.
- e. Never engage in any form of bullying.
- f. Avoid interference with others' property.
- g. Demonstrate integrity and responsibility.
- h. Prioritize horse welfare over competition.
- i. Maintain exemplary conduct on show grounds and in the ring.
- j. Must not influence Judges and appointed Judges decisions
- k. Competitors must remain in class until winners have been sashed.
- l. Encourage genuine applause without compromising fair competition.

Adherence to this ethics code is crucial for breed and Association integrity. ASEA Inc. Membership signifies agreement to this code

MARSHALLING

It is imperative that ALL exhibitors present themselves to the marshalling area at least 5 minutes before the end of the previous class. This will ensure you are in time to resolve any issues. If there is a gear or handler change, please notify the Gate Steward. All equipment required for gear and handler changes must be brought to the marshalling area to ensure classes run efficiently. No thongs, sandals or Ugg boots are to be worn in the marshalling area. PLEASE make sure you monitor the progress of the classes and are in time for your classes.

Once your name has been marked off on the marshalling sheet, you will be regarded as present and ready for your class. DO NOT leave the designated marshalling area as you will not be recalled.

SUITABLE ATTIRE

Exhibitors must be suitably attired for the occasion. Exhibitors must be aware that both handlers and horses are on display and must present themselves in a neat and appropriate manner. Suitable attire includes quality dress slacks or trousers, short or long sleeve blouse. Ties, hats and jackets or coats are to be worn at the discretion of the Exhibitor. For formal occasions, long sleeved buttoned-down shirt/blouse with slacks or skirt seem appropriate. Suitable footwear is always necessary, only boots and closed toe shoes are allowed. No advertising matter shall appear on any items of dress or equipment that leads to Stud, Farm or Personal identification in the ring. The judges or Show official's decision on what comprises correct attire shall be final

JUDGE'S DECISION

The Judge's decision at an Official Show is final and is under no obligation to award 1st, 2nd or 3rd place (any placing) if he/she considers such Exhibit not up to standard. Once a class has been judged it shall not be re-judged.

JUDGING OF GRAND CHAMPION

In each section of the Programme all class winners are eligible to compete for Grand Champion. Each Exhibit which has qualified for the Grand Championship class must be given an individual workout.

SUPREME OF SUPREMES

Eligible Supreme of Show winners will compete for the applicable Supreme of Supreme Awards when offered at an ASEA Inc Show. Where multiple Judges are selecting a Supreme of Supreme, a Card System or written system should be employed.

SHOWING MORE THAN ONE HORSE

Any handler/driver who has shown two or more horses which have qualified to compete in a Grand Championship class may handle/drive each of these Exhibits in their individual workout in the Grand Championship class.

ADDITIONAL HANDLER

An additional handler/driver must be in attendance to parade the second or subsequent Exhibits for the remainder of the Grand Championship class

COLT/STALLIONS:

- No stallion or colt is to be handled or driven in Harness events by a person under 18 years of age.
- No stallion or colt is permitted to be shown in any youth Handler Class or Youth event.
- Handlers must not incite stallions to challenge by facing them up to each other or crowding them.
- NO youth may ride a colt or stallion in Youth events.
- Parents or guardians of youth exhibitors may request special permission from the Show Committee for a youth aged 12 years and over to show a colt/stallion. The application must be made at least 7 days prior to the show and must include details of experience and justification for the dispensation must be outlined. The Committee will assess each application on its merit.
- Youth exhibitors may handle a current season's foal or weanling colt in halter classes (not permitted in any Youth events).
- Youth aged 12 years and over may handle a yearling colt in halter classes. (not permitted in any Youth events).
- In all cases, Show Committee / Judges may revoke permission if the safety of the horse or pony, handler or other exhibitors is deemed to be compromised.

CONDUCT

- Competitors shall at all times behave in a proper and respectful manner to Judges, Show Officials and their fellow competitors. Any Exhibitor whose conduct is considered to be ill-mannered, aggressive or unsportsmanlike during the judging of an event may be issued a warning and subsequently dismissed from the class or disqualified from the show.
- Competitors at all times must abide by the ASEA Inc Code of Ethics, Bullying and Conduct Policy or risk being disqualified and ejected from the show/event, effective immediately.
- Once the Judging has commenced, the horse shall not be led or driven in or out of the Ring without the permission of the Judge.

- Competitors will refrain from smoking, drinking alcohol or taking any substance which impairs their ability to control the Exhibit.
- The use of mobile phones or any other electronic device whilst competing in the ring is prohibited.

ELIGIBILITY

- No Exhibitor may compete in any class being adjudicated by a Judge who is not permitted to judge the Exhibit/Exhibitor as stipulated in Rule 7 for Judges. It is the Exhibitor's responsibility to ensure eligibility for a class. Where any ineligibility to compete may occur, the Exhibitor (not the Judge) should withdraw from the event.
- No Exhibitors may show before a Judge who has received, or is contracted to receive a remuneration for the sale, purchase, or lease of any horse, from the date of signing the Lease, to or from, or for the account of said person within a period of three months prior to the show
- No Exhibitor may show before a Judge who boards, rides or trains (for horse show purposes) any horse under the said persons ownership or lease, within a period of three months prior to the show. (Stud fees excluded).
- No Exhibitor may show before a Judge who has remunerated said person for the board, training or handling of any horse for show purposes within a period of three months prior to the show.
- No Exhibitor who has been given tuition by a Judge may show within 3 months before the Judge or conversely no Judge may adjudicate his tutor until a 3-month period has elapsed. The rule is for individual tuition only. Training days and clinics organised on a group basis by other than the Judge, are exempt.

ABUSE OF HORSES

Any incident wherever on the show ground observed by an Official of the Show which is considered to reflect abuse or a cruel practice to an Exhibit by an Exhibitor, handler, or driver shall be reported to the Committee and may result in immediate disqualification of it or him/her from all events in which the Exhibit, Exhibitor, handler, or driver is entered, as well as the forfeiting of all prize monies gained.

This includes but is not limited to:

- Tethering horses to floats overnight
- Stabling horses overnight in horse float single bays designed/suitable for transport only
- Failing to provide sufficient bedding in stables
- Failing to provide sufficient water and/ or feed for the duration of the stay. Stabling and feeding must be compatible with good horse management and must not compromise welfare of the horse. Any practices that could cause physical or mental suffering, in or out of competition, will not be tolerated.
- Failing to sufficiently rug a clipped horse
- Health status: No horse showing symptoms of disease, lameness, significant ailments or pre-existing clinical conditions should compete or continue to compete if its welfare would be compromised. Veterinary advice must be sought whenever there is any doubt. Any horses exhibiting the above may be disqualified from showing for the event.
- Extreme weather — Competitions must not take place in extreme weather conditions if the welfare or safety of the horse may be compromised.

WHIPS, CHAINS AND BITS

- These are acceptable aids in the showing of horses in In-Hand and Harness Classes. Where indiscriminate and excessive use of these aids occurs, a verbal warning will be given. Disqualification will result if Exhibits display evidence of whip abuse or bleeding from bits or if Exhibitors continue with the excessive use of aids after the initial verbal warning was given. This should be checked by the Steward prior to judging.
- All chains must be captured

TINY TOT CLASSES

ELIGIBILITY: Tiny Tot Classes are for Youth 9yrs & under.

YOUTH CLASSES

ELIGIBILITY: Any person under the age of 18 years at the show entry closing date who, in the opinion of the parents can safely lead and control (i.e. handle) a horse.

DRESS: Competitors shall be dressed suitably and neatly attired in accordance with dress codes for showing.

YOUTH HORSES

- Only mares and geldings are to be used in the interests of safety for all.
- Horses are to be shown according to the Rules of presentation of the ASEA Inc. Bridles and Led-In
- Halters are equally acceptable, however, should a horse appear unruly, the Judge may direct the Steward to request that gear be changed or adjusted.

YOUTH LEAD REIN

Leading Rein Pony - Horse or Pony 12.2hh and under, rider 3 yrs and under 8 yrs. The rider must not carry a cane. Spurs are not permitted.

- The pony must be suitable for a small beginner as this class caters for younger children starting to ride. Temperament and manners are paramount. A tiny child is not expected to be very much more than a passenger enjoying the ride, whilst the older child is expected to be a little more competent.
- The pony should be willing, well mannered, obedient and relaxed. The Lead Rein Pony is expected to be a quality riding type pony with all the characteristics of a good riding animal. It should have an established and very settled head carriage with soft regular paces that inspire confidence in its young rider.
- All Riders must wear a helmet to the Australian Safety Standard
- Horses must be at least 3 years actual age
- The pony must be shown in a snaffle bridle and bitted with a leather lead rein, held by the handler in the left hand, attached to the cavesson noseband. A narrow strap may be attached to the front of the small saddle for the child to hold if necessary.
- Leading Rein Handler to be 16 yrs and over the handler may carry a cane not to exceed 40cms; the rider must have neither whip nor spurs. The handler should be able to hold the lead rein in the left hand about a metre from the pony with the right hand free to assist the child if necessary. The rider should be encouraged to rise at the trot.
- Leading rein pony should possess a kind eye, good length of rein, be clean through the gullet and have a reasonably narrow wither so that the child can sit in comfort. It should have a good sloping shoulder, be short in the back and have correct hind legs.
- The paces should be straight, true, rhythmical, and easy with a good length of stride at walk and trot. The action should be active but not so that the rider is bounced out of the saddle. In the class, the pony should walk at a medium pace and never over trot causing loss of balance. The head carriage should be correct in a rounded frame and still. The pony should halt without fuss and always stand quietly.
- Manners must be impeccable. Must be quiet enough to carry a small child. Must only ever walk or trot and never run past handler.

Presentation - Manes and Tails. Manes are optional to be free flowing or plaited; tails can be free, plaited or pulled. False Tails are permitted

Coat and Hooves - Coat clean, with excess hair removed. Hooves oiled or blacked

Saddlery - Saddle (including girth and stirrups) and Saddlecloth Saddle should be of good quality and be supple and clean with sound stitching. Saddle should be small (14" or less)

- Optional numnah or saddle pad.
- Girth either white webbing or leather.
- Safety stirrups (Peacock Irons, clogs & stirrup cages) are permitted.
- Bridle (including bits and browbands) must be in a snaffle bridle (jointed or straight bar) Bridle should be the same colour as the saddle, supple, of good quality leather. Tasteful brow band to complement pony's head size, colour and outfits worn by rider and handler, e.g., matching hair ribbons etc.

Judging - To be judged on manners and obedience.

- Workout should be a simple work out and show some transitions to show suitability as lead rein pony. Pony is led from back of cavesson with leather lead. Rider should be able to rise to the trot a little and assist with turning.
- The handler must hold the lead in the left hand and carry a cane in the right hand.
- The handler is not to control the pony unless the rider requires assistance the rider will be judged on their basic position in the saddle, hand, leg, feet in stirrups, seat and back position.
- The class can be worked at a walk or trot both directions of the ring.
- In the line-up, the judge may ask riders to back their horses.
- If the judge asks the rider to back the horse in the line-up, the adult should not aid the rider.
- For the safety of the horse and rider, the combined weight of the rider and saddlery should not be more than 20% of the horse's total weight

OPEN RIDDEN CLASSES

The rider may carry a cane not to exceed 40cm. Spurs are not permitted

- The pony must be suitable for a small beginner as this class caters for younger children starting to ride.
